Project Engineer

Eetarp - Singapore

If you are highly motivated, enthusiastic and have excellent programming skills, we offer a challenging career in an innovative technology company.
We are looking for a Project Engineer at our office in Singapore and welcome your application.

Job Scopes

- Execute the implementation of DFR/HRR/RTU/SCADA projects.
- Prepare project documents such as drawings, signal lists, operation manuals, and testing reports.
- Site coordination, project schedule planning, coordinate with customer and subcontractor.
- Project management and attend project meeting.
- Provide testing and commissioning services.
- Provide training to customers.
- Provide on-site support and troubleshooting.
- Perform maintenance work for DFR/HRR/RTU/SCADA.
- Complete ad-hoc tasks assigned by manager.

Requirements

- Knowledge on electrical system
- Basic knowledge and skills in computer system.
- Familiar with DFR/HRR/RTU is an advantage.
- Familiar with SCADA system is an advantage.
- Strong troubleshooting skills and analytical mindset.
- Positive attitude, self-motivated, Team Player.
- Preferably Entry Level specialized Electrical Engineering
- At least 1-3 Year(s) of working experience in the related field is required for this position.

Seniority Level
Entry Level

Industry
Electrical/Electronic

Employment Type
Full-Time

Skills
Project Management
Project Document.
Electrical Engineering